

Black Jack Fig

Ficus carica

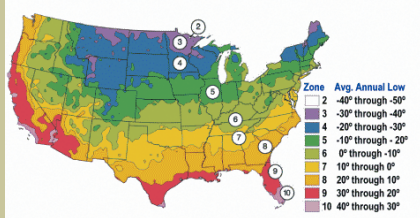

Large, long purplish fruit with strawberry red flesh. Sweet and juicy. Heavy producer.

Excellent for fresh eating, dried and delicious jams.

Tree is a natural semi-dwarf and can be kept under 6-8 feet tall with pruning. Otherwise can reach 12-15 feet.

Ripens from July to October.

Cold Hardy to U.S.D.A. Zone 8.

Since 1944

From the nurseries of

L.E. COOKE CO

Excellence in Bareroot